

Books of the Bible Race

Grade Levels: older saints (able to read)

Objective: To learn the books of the Bible in order

Set Up:

- Table (or one table for each team)
- Copy two sets of flashcards and bookmark (right side of this page), cut apart and lay face up on the table(s). If you plan to play multiple games, it may be convenient to copy each set on a different color of cardstock.
- 2 teams, lined up

To Play:

- The first student in each line holds a "books of the Bible" bookmark and is the "helper."
- The second student starts at the teacher's "go," picking up the cards in order, from Genesis to Revelation. He/she can consult with the "helper". (The "helper" usually ended up just shouting out the books in order while the "Picker" searches for them).
- About every 30 seconds the teacher calls "switch" at which time the players rotate. (The "helper" gives the bookmark to the "picker" and moves to the end of the line. The "picker" moves up to become the "helper", and the next person in line moved forward to the "picker" position.)
- The race continues until all the flashcards are picked up in order.
- The first team to pick up all the cards is the winner.

NOTE: Another catechist suggests a simplified version of this game in which all members of each team stand around the table and work together the entire time instead of lining up and taking turns.
